

Criminal Justice 2020-21

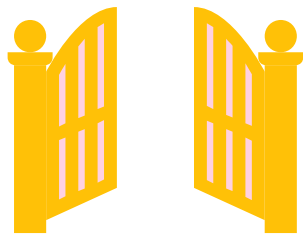

Prisoner Accommodation Service

Ara operates a prison release service (RSI - rough sleepers initiative) in Bristol prison, securing accommodation for prisoners and helping to prevent their return to rough sleeping on release.

65

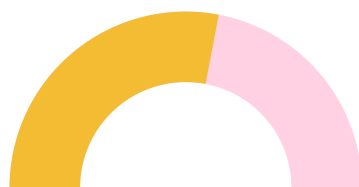

RSI clients met at the gate and housed on day of release

14

RSI clients moved into private lets

53% of RSI clients moved into long-term lets; 47% moved into short-term lets

One RSI client moved in to a Bristol City Council property with her three children

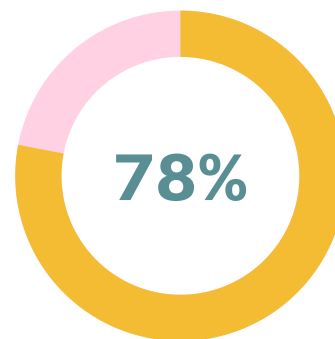

ARRO - Ara Resettlement Restart Opportunities

ARRO is a 3 year pilot project commissioned by the Ministry of Justice. The aims of this service are to reduce re-offending and prevent homelessness.

23

ARRO clients housed long-term

78% of clients still in ARRO long-term flats

"It's a brilliant service - they have helped me a real lot keeping me on track and supporting me. My worker has gone over and beyond and helped me to get work as well. I am enjoying work now much better instead of crime"

"It's all going well at the moment. It was brilliant getting this flat - it's a beautiful flat. The staff are really good. I'd have been knackered without ARRO. The best thing is that I am clean now"